FLYING J INSURANCE SERVICES NOW OFFERS AFLAC

Professional drivers can now apply for Aflac insurance policies at select Flying J Travel Plazas

Ogden, UT – January 22, 2007 – Flying J Insurance Services, a leading insurance agency serving the trucking industry since 1997, has teamed with Aflac to offer professional drivers insurance coverage to help families and individuals meet the demands of rising medical expenses. Aflac insurance policies pay benefits directly to the insured, independent of any existing major medical plan payments. Over-the-road drivers may apply for this kind of coverage by visiting with a licensed insurance agent now located in many Flying J Travel Plazas across the country.

JJ Singh, vice president of Financial Services for Flying J, announced the availability of Aflac insurance policies by saying, "Professional drivers are concerned about the burden of rising out-of-pocket and uncovered expenses due to accidents and sickness. Aflac, a leader in this field, meets this growing need. Aflac offers a type of protection our customers will appreciate. Unlike traditional health insurance, Aflac pays the policyholder, not the doctor or hospital."

Ron Kirkland, senior vice president, director of Sales for Aflac, said that "Flying J is a name known to all truckers. At Aflac, we are pleased and excited to offer our valuable products through Flying J Insurance Services. We look forward to a long-term relationship, providing excellent service when and where you need it. I see this as a tremendous opportunity for Flying J, Aflac and many drivers and their families. If you are sick or hurt and can't work, we will be there for you in your time of need."

JJ Singh went on to say, "Drivers benefit by having us deliver these important services to them—out on the road. We continue to try to offer value-added professional services to these hard-working business people."

By the end of 2006, Flying J will have remodeled over 60 Travel Plazas across the country to include Financial Services Centers. Many of these centers will be staffed with a licensed insurance agent who represents a complete line of personal and trucking insurance products. Currently, agents are located in Flying J Travel Plazas in Salt Lake City, Utah; Ogden, Utah; Phoenix, Arizona; Warrenton, Missouri; Dallas, Texas; Franklin, Kentucky; Jackson, Georgia; South Beloit, Illinois; Alorton, Illinois; Laredo, Texas; Rock Hill, North Carolina; and Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.
